W.A. LAWS & REGULATIONS REGARDING NATIVE FAUNA

All native fauna in W.A. is protected by law and the following acts are ILLEGAL unless the appropriate license has been obtained:

- Taking from the wild unless in need of care.
- Keeping in captivity EXCEPT for temporary care when sick, injured, orphaned UNTIL ready for release back into their native habitat. If the fauna is unable to be released, it either needs to be handed to a Wildlife Officer, with DEC approval given to a person licensed to keep it or if unlikely to recover or fend for itself have it humanely destroyed
- Releasing into an area where the animal/bird does not occur naturally.
- Keeping for breeding or holding for gain or reward.
- Using a trap or snare
- Marking any wild fauna by means of rings, bands, dyes or any other means, e.g. wing clipping, EXCEPT for veterinary reasons.

INJURY TO OR ILLEGAL TAKING OF NATIVE FAUNA MAY INVOKE A FINE

DEC is to be notified within 24 hours of obtaining any fauna received into care declared to be notifiable fauna, e.g. rare fauna and all reptiles.

It is necessary to apply to DEC before passing over any fauna to a wildlife park, bird park, etc.

Fauna in care may not be displayed for gain (donations allowed).

Injured fauna may not be displayed publicly.

If it is desired to display fauna in care publicly, permission MUST be obtained from the DEC. Applications should be made via the FAWNA Committee at least one month before the planned display.

It is illegal to keep in captivity wildlife classified as vermin.

IF YOU HAVE ANY QUESTIONS REGARDING AUSTRALIAN WILDLIFE LAWS PLEASE REFER TO THE NEAREST DEC OFFICE.
